

2nd Annual KSAT SPRING CLEAN-UP

Saturday, April 20 8:30 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.

The dedication of our first sculpture, Grace Gate, by artist Willie Cole is Tuesday, April 23, 2:00 p.m. To show the trail off at its best,

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

Join us on SATURDAY April 20 as we gather garbage and remove the plastic collars from the sturdier saplings below the trail.

Invite all that run, bike, fish, walk their dogs, and stroll along the trail.
Come! Enjoy the daffodils that were planted last fall!

Sign-in tables: at the Blue Bridge (Bushkill Drive) and at 13th Street entrance

Parking: 13th Street entrance and 500 Bushkill Street (near Safe Harbor)

The City of Easton will provide garbage bags and gloves

Helpful advice from last year's clean-up:

"Wear work gloves or garden gloves"

"Wear long sleeves and long pants"

"Bring your filled water bottle"

Not free on April 20? Bring your own bag to collect garbage anytime you visit the trail. Carry it out, or leave it in the trail garbage cans. If the cans are full, please inform City Planning Dept at (610) 250-6721.

Questions: Daytime M-F: (610)-250-6721/Eve:(610)253-0309; (610)559-1087

Rain date: Next day(Sunday, April 21, 8:30-11:30)

What is happening on the trail?

Beginning in Early April: Watch for changing 'exhibits' on the Young Masters Wall (13th Street). Easton Youth and Adult programs paint their creations with supervision by Lafayette students.

April 13/14 Weekend: Easton Arts/Open Studio Tour Map will include the KSAT Grace Gate and the Young Masters Wall.

April 23, Tuesday 2:00 p.m. Dedication of Grace Gate, by artist Willie Cole. Come to this special event! Meet the artist. From either end, walk or take a shuttle to the Grace Gate.

More KSAT activities are in the planning stage. We will keep you informed!

Visit us on Facebook: Friends of the Karl Stirner Art Trail

